ha poll debacle at legislature party meeting

'Give proof against corrupt officials'

Siddaramaiah is understood to have told the legislators to get him proof against corrupt officials so that he can take stringent action against them.

"Do not make allegations without proof. Toughest action will be taken if proof is provided, he promised, when many MLAs alleged that officials were corrupt and do not co-operate in development works.

MLA hails Modi model

Nargund MLA B R Yavagal surprised one and all in the meeting when he hailed the Modi model of development in Gujarat and asked the party government in the State to adopt good initiatives of that state. It is not proper to always criticise the Gujarat model of development. If people are satisfied with the governance there, some good works must have happened. The government in Karnataka should adopt them, he suggested.

the ministers as to why they are averse to meeting the legislators.

The chief minister gives time for MLAs, but the ministers do not. Moreover, none of the ministers is defending the chief minister whenever there is a crisis.

The chief minister is overburdened and has to deal with even simple issues like garbage disposal in Bangalore, he said.

In the meeting, the legislators were given an opportunity to air problems about their constituencies. Perhaps for the first time, officials of the chief minister's office and the ministers concerned recorded the legislators' complaints and suggestions.

About 25 legislators did not get an opportunity to speak in the meeting due to paucity of time. Hence, the chief minister assured to respond to the complaints by legislators in the next meeting.

Panchayat elections

In his opening remarks, Siddaramaiah asked the legislators to work for the party's victory in the upcoming elections to panchayats and BBMP.

The chief minister had convened the day-long meeting to iron out differences, if any, ahead of the legislature session scheduled to commence on June 23. Siddaramaiah also hosted a dinner for the legislators later in the day.

KPCC chief and newly-elected MLC G Parameshwara, former union minister and Chikkaballapur MP Veerappa Moily and Rajya Sabha member Rajeev Gowda attended the meeting. About 30 legislators, including three ministers [illegible]

Byre Gowda at the meeting, [illegible] tending the CLP meeting? It is but without taking his name.
